

Dear FCC:

Please do not continue to threaten New Jersey's "Do Not Call" list. The list has been very successful in stopping unwanted telemarketing calls. When a state program is superior to a federal one the Federal Government should defer to the state.

Marc Barkowski